

The Argus.

POSTAGE—Foreign 3d/6d per Quarter, 10s/12s to address. Home Copy 1/6d. (SPECIALS.)
Published Daily, except on Sundays.

MELBOURNE, VICTORIA

{ CASH TERMS FOR ADVERTISEMENTS.—Thirty in advance of a year with the advertiser, half on 15th. Paper 2d per line.

The Argus, Melbourne, March 12 1932

Sailing Ship Memories

J. Cameron (Mortlake) writes:- I notice that R.E.H. (Caulfield) claims that his aunt, the late Mrs. Ellen Bentley, was the last survivor of the fever ship Ticonderogo (sic). My father, Duncan Cameron, of Mouny Moss, Mortlake, who is more than 90 years old, and my aunt, Mrs. Hennessy, also of Mortlake, came out on that ship. They remember incidents of the long voyage.

Transcribed from original by Julie Ruzsicska, 27 June 2000